

Julie Lynn Johnson Tweedie

August 31, 1967 - August 5, 2018

Julie Lynn Johnson Tweedie, 50, passed away August 5, 2018 at her home in Enoch, UT. She was born on August 31, 1967 to Marvin Glen and Gene Hamilton Flood Johnson in Annapolis, MD. She was the second of three children and the only daughter.

Julie was raised in Maryland and the family relocated to Utah when she was seven years old. She graduated from Dixie High School, St. George Utah in 1985. In 1988 she accepted a call to serve as an LDS missionary. Her service in Denver, Colorado was a high point in her life. After her mission, she worked as a nanny in Connecticut.

Julie had a beautiful singing voice and used this talent throughout her life, in the Messiah, and particularly in the choir at church. She also built a reputation by becoming a favored massage therapist, bringing relief to many. Her last job was as a school bus driver. She loved those kids.

Julie's favorite vacations were the Scottish highland games, renaissance faires, car shows, and drag races with Scott.

Julie is survived by her husband, Scott McLaren Tweedie; brother Steven W. (Shannon) Johnson; step-children Krystal Tweedie Crow; Tawnie, Sean and Skye Tweedie. She was predeceased in death by both of her parents and brother, David Glen Johnson.

Funeral services will be held in the Enoch Ward Building (451 E Midvalley Rd, Enoch Utah) at 3:00 p.m. Visitation will begin at 2:00 in the Relief Society room prior to the service.

Interment will follow at the Enoch City Cemetery; 1580 East Sunrise Drive, Enoch, Iron County, Utah.

Arrangements entrusted to the care of Serenity Funeral Home of Southern Utah 1316 S. 400 E. Ste. A3 St. George, UT 84790 (435)986-2085
