“ I was shocked and saddened when I read Kay Lyn's obituary. The last time I saw her was at the garage sale in Bloomington. She looked so healthy and happy and was smiling and laughing as she always did. I was so happy to see her again as I had lost track of her after she closed her store at Bloomington Courtyard. A more beautiful lady I have never known. Her beauty came from within and warmed all who came within her influence. I want to express my love and sympathy for your very great loss. She will never be forgotten and I know her spirit will always be close to her family. She made this world a more beautiful place and I have no doubt Heaven will be more beautiful because she's there.
