“ I met Jan in high school when she was living in Falls Church, Virginia. She and I were great friends. I have been trying to locate her for several years without success. I'm not on Facebook or anything else. I was also in her wedding with another friend from high school, Joyce (Whetstein) Fedrick and was with Jan when she met Tom. We kept in touch for about 10 years and then lost contact. I have never forgotten her laugh. She was always happy and I loved spending time with her and a few times with her family. I still have a picture of her from senior year of high school. She was very special to me. My sincere condolences to her family.

“ My earliest memory of Jan was when we were visiting their house in Smithfield. Mark and i were in the basement watching cartoons (The Mighty Heroes and Tom of T.H.U.M.B.) It started raining and we went upstairs because we heard and smelled popcorn popping. Everyone was playing Twister and Jan had just set up a game of Clue at the table. We were too little to play, but Jan insisted we be on her team. That was over 50 years ago and I still think of her everytime we play it. It's a typical example of her sweet nature and kind heart. Another early memory is picking up her and Pam from wherever they were going to college (Logan, Weber?) I was in the way back of the station wagon. They were carrying on such a conversation with my parents and so excited. They wanted to paint my fingernails with their pink nail polish. I really didn't want to but they were dying to do it so I let them. They were talking about having seen The Beach Boys at The Lagoon. I was clueless about music at that age. I remember them describing their blue striped shirts. It would be about a decade before I discovered them and they have remained my favorite band to this day. I remember her family staying in California while Tom was stationed in Kwajalein in the Marshall Islands. You better believe we played Clue alot! She was always smiling and laughing. I just loved being around her. See you later alligator.

We at the North Davis Sewer District were saddened when we heard of Jan's passing. Many of us worked with her for many years and enjoyed her friendship and pleasant manner. She was a skilled and diligent employee, but more than that, she was a great friend and a kind human being who left all around her better for having the privilege of knowing her goodness. We send our deepest condolences and wish comfort to her family at this time of sadness. KC
