“ Karen was a joy to be around, I met Karen at my cousin. Johnny house, he had a girlfriend who didn't like her and I would stick up for Karen. She was like youre bad ass white girl. And so that's where the whole white girl thing started. I was white girl and she was lil white girl. I love you Karen, you will always be missed baby girl. Fly hi with the angels now, you got your wings.

“ On Dec.23, I came to Hurricane and had a wonderful time hanging out with Karen and my son Ryan . I got to know Karen quite well,we talked for hours about everything her hopes and dreams ,about the baby she lost and how sad she was about that. We had a Christmas dinner and opened gifts and we had a really good time I know she was happy may god bless her she is with their baby now. Sincerely Lisa Heaney

“ Years ago when Karen was young, Every time my ex husband and I would return from over the road, and go to Tim and Linda's house, she would always come out and hang out in the truck with me. We would always take walk's or ride's, we would go on hikes and head down the street to the rock shop up the way. Her and Timmy were always happy to see us. Didn't talk to her for years until this last year. She for whatever reason shared her thoughts and I enjoyed our conversations. I will miss her funny tough outrageously awesome attitude. GOD has a special new Angel. I will always remember her and miss her. Tell we meet again.....
