“ I remember how much aunt Kay loved her kids. Whenever Kay and Bob would visit she would fill me in on what my cousin's had been up to. I remember going to one of Grandma's Birthday parties that Bob and Kay hosted in Parowan. It was really fun. I remember the whole family was almost all there. Although we all miss Kay now, I know we will all be with her again someday.

“ Karrolyn has always been so kind to me and has always greeted me with a big hug, a smile and kind words. The first day I met her, I walked into Lisa & Rob’s house. Lisa and I were both young mothers with toddlers and babies at the time. I saw Karrolyn sitting on the sofa helping fold the clean laundry. I remember thinking how lovely that was! I was lucky to have known her! I know she is deeply loved and will be greatly missed. ❤️
