“ *Dad was always nice to me and it really meant a lot. Dad was just cool and spiritual. A righteous dood. I have so many me memories of Dad and he always bailed me out literally and that meant so much. Dad had so many awesome ideas and Christ being number one in his life and personified to family and friends. So many special times with Dad and i feel blessed having inherited the lists of good he taught me. Dad, you are in my heart and i talk of you and think of you frequently. I love you, your son, Kell. “ I worked with Larry for many years. He was always positive. His love of God and Family were most admirable. When we played golf He know my game exactly what club to use how to look at a shot, just through observation. If we could all be willing to look out for one another as He did. What a better place the world would be, I am privileged to have known him as a friend, co-worked and a brother in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Gwen my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. May God bless you and bring you comfort during this time

“ Larry, I will miss all the good times we had. You have always been an inspiration to me and all those you came in contact with. Although we started out as co workers, we quickly became good friends.

Gwen, I am so sorry for your loss. I was looking forward to spending a day with Larry and you in April. I know he will be watching over you and hope he sends me a warm smile from time to time.

Larry, I will see you when my calling comes

“ Chuck and I met Larry when our daughter planned to marry his son Shane. We were worried about their young age, but Larry and Gwen raised a terrific family and we have been thankful for their faith in family above all. We have 20+ years knowing Larry and we will miss him a great deal

“ So sorry for your loss Gwen. Larry was a great, fun, loving guy. We will always remember the times he would stop us on our walk, in his cool mustang, for a short chat.

“ Of the many things Larry was - kind, sincere and genuine are the first that come to mind. Always happy to see you, he was a welcome, friendly face to many. I remember how much he loved to talk about his greatest source of pride - his family and, inevitably, his Mustang too.

Many of us at Siemon have lost a good friend and the world lost an even better person. We were better for knowing Larry during his all to brief time with us - he will be missed.

“ Larry - I've never known a nicer person or a greater friend. I'm so glad I was able to visit recently and tell you in person.

I'll miss our conversations about March Madness and the poor choices we made on our brackets. I'll miss the birthday phone calls. I'll miss the golf stories and the reminder "if you could putt, you'd be dangerous."

Sending my love to Gwen, Shane and Bret. We're all lucky to have had Larry in our lives.

“ When I worked with Larry in different church callings he always had an amazing positive attitude towards things in life. I admired his positive attitude and his hard work in getting things done. Many times to me he expressed that he owed his success and who he had become to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to the support of his wife Gwen. On more than one occasion he said that he wish he could communicate to his children and grandchildren; in a way that they could see the vision of the Gospel of Jesus Christ the way that he sees it.

Love to Larry and Gwen from Ralph and Martha Spencer.
