The Paragonah Cemetery is particularly beautiful on Memorial Days with individual flags flying for all the veterans with the beautiful mountains and the blue, blue sky of Paragonah as a backdrop. Photo by Linda Rae Dalton Lowe. This cemetery is Larry's final resting place.

I remember Larry Arthur, his brothers and his parents fondly from my childhood growing up in Paragonah. He was in my senior class at Parowan High School. He was handsome and kind hearted. His service in the Viet Nam War was noted when Paragonah raised the money and installed and dedicated a Veteran's Memorial at the Paragonah Cemetery honoring Larry and so many others. It was noted at that time for such a small town how many brave soldiers from Paragonah served their country.

“ Larry was our families home teacher for several years. We felt his love! He took Mark, my husband to the hospital for one of his checkups after a surgery. I'm so grateful for his willingness to serve our family!
