

Lenore Hayes Mullins

January 3, 1928 - September 18, 2017

Lenore Hayes Mullins, 89, of St George, Utah peacefully passed away on September 18, 2017. She slipped into eternity in her own home, surrounded by her family. She was born January 3, 1928 in Mesa Arizona. She is the daughter of Emmitt Oliver HAYES and Lenore CONDIE. She was married to Richard Jackson Mullins on November 15, 1947. They were sealed for eternity in the St. George LDS Temple.

Lenore lost both of her parents by the age of eight and was raised in Pioche, Nevada by her Uncle Bruce and Aunt Katie Condie. She had many family and friends and was an active and vivacious red haired young woman.

After WWII she met her sweetheart, Jack, in California where they were both living. They bought their first home in Torrance, California where they settled down to raise their family. After fifteen years, they moved their family to Mission Viejo, California. They then lived in Corona, California with fruit trees and a large garden with plenty of room for the grandchildren. They retired to St George, Utah.

Lenore and her daughter, Liz, opened a flower shop in Corona, California. Lenore loved flowers and became an AIFD Certified Floral Designer. Lenore had a love for music and attended many musical events as well as leading choirs in church.

Lenore was always active in the LDS church and held many positions within. She did enormous amounts of genealogy and gathered her family for reunions annually. She has a strong pioneer heritage and testimony of the gospel which she shared with those close to her. She served two Family History Missions, and served in the Temple Visitor Center. The family was so important to her and she always shared her love with them.

Lenore is survived by her son, Richard Bruce Mullins (Elizabeth) her daughter, Elizabeth Mullins-Spurrier and another daughter. Her grandchildren, Shelby Mullins Moyle (Jon), Stephen Walters (Dani), Tami Mullins, Alisa Spurrier, Krista Spurrier, Chase Spurrier (Abby) and many more Grandchildren and Great Grandchildren.

Lenore is preceded by her sweetheart Jack, her sister Gladys Hayes Bergstrom, her angel Granddaughter Nicole Spurrier and Granddaughter Jessica Mickelson.

Lenore was laid to rest next to her husband, in a private graveside service for those who loved her on September twentieth, in Leeds Utah.

The family would like to thank the many friends and family who were always there for her. Her ward family and medical services that did so much to keep her comfortable.
