

Lois Gaye Evans

July 25, 1937 - February 14, 2020

Lois Gaye Railsback Hall Evans age 82 passed away at home 14 February 2020 of causes related to age. She was born 25 July 1937 in Calico Rock, Arkansas to John William Hornaday Railsback and Stacy Belle Clark. Her mother died when she was 5 years old, about a year later her Father took Lois and her two sisters, June and Joan, to California where they were adopted by their half-brother and his wife, Ralph and LaVerna Railsback. They lived in California for several years then moved to Fillmore where she lived until she graduated from high school. After graduating from high school Lois attended CSU where she met Relden Hall. Upon his return from serving in the western states mission they were married in the Manti temple 29 September 1960. He attended CSU for a few months then they moved to Logan so he could finish his degree at Utah State University. While living there Relden died in a farming accident. Lois returned to Fillmore to live near her parents and raise their daughter who was born six weeks later. She worked at several places in Fillmore, including the dentists office, the telephone office, as an aide in the elementary school for several years and as a waitress in every restaurant in town. She was working at the Paradise Cafe when she met Bill Evans who stopped there every weekend on his way from Provo to Parowan. They were married in Las Vegas 14 February 1978 and lived in Salem until Bill retired and they moved to Parowan. Throughout her life, she made many friends, was active in church holding many callings her favorite was as a family history consultant. She was an active member of DUP and served more than once as camp Captain, she volunteered in the local DUP museum in Spanish Fork and the Rock Church in Parowan. She enjoyed many hobbies and activities, visiting her daughter's family, crocheting, scrapbooking, making birthday cards for her family and friends but her favorite was Family History and she worked most of her life researching her family and helping others find their ancestors. She was preceded in death by her sister June, her parents Ralph and LaVerna, and her first husband Relden Hall. She is survived by her husband Bill, daughter Janet (Bret) Talbott, sister Joan (Jim) Pittman and stepsons, Bruce, David (Annette), Scott (Sabrina), Neal (Tara) and Bryan (Jamie). She has 15 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews who remember her with love.

“ I, Adele Hepburn Livingston remember Lois when she was a cute little girl in the North Hollywood Ward in California. My mother was a good friend to her mother and when they moved to Fillmore, we stopped to visit them on our way to Salt Lake. I remember how bad our family felt when June passed away.

They were a great family and I send my condolences to all those who love her.

“ I wish that I had known Lois better, but it doesn't take long to recognize a kind gentle soul who loves to share a laugh. Lois was an usually sweet person whose absence makes the earth a lesser place. I'm thankful that I got acquainted with Lois - for even a small time.

“ I'm so grateful to have gotten to know Lois through scrapbooking and then I moved next store and she loved calling me her neighbor. What a dear sweet sister who will me missed! I'm so excited for the reunions going on in Heaven!

“ Lois and I really got to know each other during college. We shared a class or two together, and hard to believe, we would talk most of the time. She was always good to me, and no matter where we were at, she would make sure to stop and well, you know--just talk, and talk, and talk. I feel really bad, she wanted to get together some time and make cards, sorry to say it never happened. We love you! Deanna (Prince)Groke
