“ As with the passing of any loved one, the hole left in our lives is impossible to fill completely. The passing of a spouse and parent will always be deeply felt and our hearts go out to the family. God has a plan, and we may not understand or fully appreciate that plan while we are here, but Marcia now knows. God bless and keep you during this difficult time!

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of the family and friends of Marty. Marty and Dell would always say to me when I would see them that I was family to them and it made feel so good inside. Marty was a devoted wife and loving mother and grandmother and she will be missed by all who she touched. She is now resting in heaven and is waiting to touch all of us again.

“ Aunt Marty has held a special place in my life and heart for every one of my almost 59 years. As mom's twin sister, and with dad and Uncle Del being best of friends, our families spent a lot of time together - traveling, camping, eating (always and still a major part of any family gathering), Jeeping and holidays.

She and I shared a love of words - she could always be counted on for long distance crossword help - and books, animals and a slightly off center sense of humor. I will miss her cards and phone calls and will always remember my last visit, the best part of which was laying at the foot of her bed talking and laughing and letting Uncle Del take care of us. I am so grateful to you both for everything. You will never be forgotten. I love you the most,

Teri

“ We will miss you more then you could ever imagine. I have called you Mom from the moment I met you. You have shown unconditional love to me and my entire family. Your wicked sense of humor will greatly be missed, I swear I must be your daughter. We will truly miss you. Rest in Peace, Mom.

Love,

Your Adopted Family

“ Aunt Marty and Uncle Del. You have always been so gracious and warm toward me. Thanks for making me part of the family. My memories of Marty are of laughing with her. I can only hope others have that memory of me when my day comes. Love. Ken

“ All our lives we've talked to each other two to three times per day. I'd like your number, please. And, as we discussed last week, hope you've had your first dance with dad.

*I guess we will be together again some day.

“ Hi Aunt Marty,

I remember:

your sense of humor and you and mom laughing so hard that you struggled not to pee your pants. Oops, you didn't have a strong enough bladder!*

accompanying your family to greet Uncle Del as his ship returned to port.*

your summer uniform of denim shorts and Keds or Grasshoppers.*

you coming to the house to show us your blue Avon case, so we could see the equipment for your new job.*

our Jeep trip through New Mexico (where we were so frightened by the thunder storm and you guys were off having Dad's knee sewn), Wyoming (where the parents enjoyed the food in Hudson so much that we stayed another night), Utah (where we were like monkeys hanging in a tree to eat all the cherries).*

Even though it was brief, I am so grateful that I was able to visit in April, to hold your hand and warm you. That memory warms my heart. "Sank you, peas!"

I love you (and you, Uncle Del),

Miss Jude

UPDATE: In a manners lesson at a fancy restaurant, Aunt Marty taught us that bread should be torn into bite-sized pieces before buttering. But how can you listen to the woman who drank her finger bowl?

“ Thank you so much for allowing me to share your life for the past 61 year. You have always been me guiding light and my inspiration. Our love withstood many years of separation. You had the strength and compassion to raise our family with never a despairing word. You were always ready for the next challenge, and there were many, with the same determination and loving care that you are well known for. I am so proud to say I was your husband and partner for so many loving years. You will always be in my heart and my thoughts and I will use your loving and passion to guide me through the rest of my life. I love you my dear your loving husband.

“ Mom I will miss you in ways only you could know. You helped me in ways that few people could know. I love you for all you did for me. Mom you will always be in my heart and I will love you for that, Mom the place I will remember you most is in my mind for without your help there I would not be the man I am today. You saved my life and for that I will always be with you. No one could have done more for there son than you did. May you rest in peace. You will never be forgotten. Your loving son. thanks mom.

“ Mom,
I've tried to think of just one memory of you to share with everyone, but I can't. Every memory is tied to another and another. They would fill this entire page. I can say this, you were a strong and beautiful woman who lived life on her terms. It was all you, Ma. You taught me how to be the person I am today and I thank you. I hope to honor your spirit and love as I move through this journey. I know you are with me every step of the way. I love you, Mom.
