

Margaret Pace Higgins

March 13, 1922 - March 6, 2017

Margaret Pace Higgins, 94, passed away Monday, March 6th in her home with her daughters by her side. She was preceded in death by her husband of 68 years, Chester C. Higgins.

Margaret was exceptionally loving to all that knew her. She was the Mother to three daughters, Kathie Haight, St. George, UT, Lisa Hobson, Buhl, ID, and Heidi Porter, Palmdale, CA; mother-in-law to Brett Porter. She also leaves behind one brother, George W. Pace (Diane), twelve grand children and fourteen great grand children.

Margaret, fifth daughter and seventh child of twelve, was born on March 13, 1922, in Burley, Idaho, (Springdale) to Presley D. Pace and Agnes Judd.

As a youth she loved to dance and would delight her children and grandchildren with little spontaneous performances of those dance steps throughout her life.

In 1941 she graduated from Burley High School and married her sweetheart Chuck, Dec. 11. They began their lives together at the onset of World War II with Chuck joining the Navy.

Returning from war, life with him took her to many homes in California and Southern Idaho, also Anchorage, Alaska and St. George, Utah. As he worked in the banking business, most of her years were spent in retail, but she also had other employment such as dental assistant and teacher for special needs students. In each new home they were surrounded by friends. She loved socializing and was always engaged in fun activities outside of work such as bowling, golf, Bridge, and camping.

Margaret had a love for life and a smile that would light up a room. She was loved and adored by all who knew her.

She had to spend the last seven years of life without her Chuck in the care of her daughters whom she was always trying to serve as long as she could stand. Along with her service her undeniable beauty both inside and out stayed with her to the end. Margaret will deeply be missed by those she leaves behind.

Private services will be held.
