

Margaret "Peggy" Louise Farmer Cihak Engweiler

December 27, 1929 - November 10, 2025

Margaret (Peggy) Louise Farmer Cihak Engweiler, (95) died November 10, 2025 at her home in St. George, Utah. She was born December 27, 1929 in Hart, Michigan to Mavoric J Farmer and Sarah Elizabeth (Bessie) Wright Farmer. She first married Louis E. Cihak and later married Henry Eugene (Gene) Engweiler on June 6, 1969, in Muskegon, Michigan.

She grew up in Mears, Michigan and attended Hart High School. She worked at GTE phone company for 23 years and was a lifelong member of ITP (International Telephone People of America). She was a member of Mears TOPS and Weightogo clubs, Wilson Ladies Aid and West Golden Wesleyan Church in Mears, Michigan. She loved her family and enjoyed family gatherings. She always loved BIG HUGS from everyone.

She is survived by her three sons, Herbert E. (Laurine) Cihak, Dennis L. (Debbie) Cihak and Gary A. (Karen) Cihak and one stepdaughter Brenda Engweiler (Dennis) Bowman. She has 9 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. She also has numerous nieces and nephews she loved dearly. Preceding her in death are her parents, stepmother (Dorothy Cram Farmer), her husband Henry (Gene) Engweiler, two sisters (Ellener Sepulveda and Doris Culler) one brother (Richard Farmer) and one stepson Kim Engweiler.)

A memorial service will be held in Spring 2026 at the Ladder Community Center, in Shelby, Michigan.