“ Marilyn, we are going to miss you and your sweet smile, my friend. You made me feel loved and accepted when I returned to Church and I will always be so thankful to you. There is only one Marilyn and we will not ever be able to replace you at Dixie Downs or in our Ward. I know your sweet husband (who you missed so very much) completed your "mansion" in heaven and you were ready to join him. We will do our best to carry on your legacy of love and kindness and give everyone we meet a smile... in your memory.... always. Blessings to your children and grandchildren as we know how much they are going to miss you too. Godspeed my dear friend. Julie Towers <3
