“ The first time I seen Markie was in Cedar City,Ut. When he was dancing I don't know how old you were (I'm guessing about 8 or 9) but I remember you standing there with your bustle on made of hawk feathers you were there with your grandparents Will and Dewellia Rogers. (ehip) I Thank You for all you've done for our Paiute People and all the other Native Tribes becoming lead singer for our Traditional Songs at a young age . I know you had your ups and downs having to deal with the loss of Family, Friends etc..... I will miss Seeing you singing the variety of songs that you were blessed with and see you dancing bird and your beautiful beadwork.

You will be missed dearly R.I.P Markie ❤️❤️❤️❤️🇺🇸💔😭
