AFTERGLOW

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave

When life is done.

-Carol Mirkel

“ May the road rise up to meet you.

May the wind be always at your back.

May the sun shine warm upon your face; the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

“ Martha was such a giving and loving young woman. She was expressive and so talented. She blessed my heart with laughter and live. We played scrabble, had long conversations about absolutely anything. I will continue to keep her spirit alive. I miss her so much. Martha impacted so many lives, and left us with an empty space that only she can fill.

“Martha is a radiant beacon of light to those who were graced with her in their lives. The elegance that she articulated so very well about her deep level of empathy she shared with many. My deepest condolences go to her family as this complex period of grief is in their lives. God is holding her hand and giving her the eternal glory she deserves. The memories of sharing experiences, emotions, and the mutual bond many shared with her will never go in vain. Martha I know you're reading this and remembering the touching memories we shared. I love you Martha, and I will think of you often as you will carry on amongst us in spirit. The Barlow family brought an exceptional young woman into the world, and she lay peacefully next to her brother. She shines as a star in our lives forever.

We love you Martha.

Rest easy my friend, we surround you with our everlasting love.

“Martha was a pillar in our community. She fended for those who could not defend themselves and she never let someone in need go without. She spoke to those who needed help and was very strong in how she carried herself. Honest and selfless. I will miss her big book groups she hosted. I love you Martha. -Tamara
