“ My dad gave me lots of affection and love when I needed it the most. I and most grateful for it too. He taught me to never give up on anything. He taught me how to play basketball at a very young age. We would always go fishing and have lots of fun. I will miss not being able to have a conversation with him the most. My dad was young at heart. I love you very much. ❤️ Deb

“ Good morning, girla! I'm sorry to hear about your dad passing away last night. Your dad was a hell of a good man. I respected him a lot. He welcome me with open arms. He got my respect at that point. I know that it was hard for you and the family. I just know that he's in a lot better place. Again, sorry you lost your dad. I'm sure the kids are hurting also. Love ya, girla!
