

Mi Kyong Chang-McMillan

August 29, 1965 - August 20, 2024

“Mi Kyong Chang-McMillan, 58, passed away unexpectedly on August 20, 2024, while visiting Arches National Park.

She was born in Yangsan-si, South Korea and immigrated to California in 1989. She lived in California, Washington, and Utah. She had a child-like wonder for life; she enjoyed long walks, snowmen, frogs, flowers, fireworks, and the color pink. Mi was a dreamer, a romantic and firm believer in God.

She is survived by her three children, Jillian Larson, Julie Larson and Joshua Munsey and grandson Declan.

She was preceded in death by her husband Jim McMillan in 2013.

The family would like to thank the first responders and hikers who tried to revive her at Arches National Park and to everyone who’s been supportive during this very difficult time.”

Tribute Wall

“ I am very sorry for your loss.. was there at the time.

-----
Jeremy Dexter - September 10, 2024 at 05:00 AM

Thank you Jeremy

Were you one the ones who helped tried to give CPR?

-----
Jillian Larson - September 10, 2024 at 10:49 AM

yes i was.

-----
Jeremy Dexter - September 11, 2024 at 05:45 AM

RS

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Mi and Jill were at my store getting water just a week ago and her laugh stood out as it always did with me. To Josh and your sister please accept my sincere condolences.

Rob

-----
Robert Shuput - August 28, 2024 at 12:25 PM

Thank you, Rob

I remember you saying “she has a great laugh” and how sweet it was for you to say that.

I wish I knew met more people she knew in St George.

-----
Jillian Larson - September 10, 2024 at 10:44 AM

RS

It was very nice to have met you Jillian.

Rob

---

Robert Shuput - September 11, 2024 at 02:50 PM

“ 2 files added to the album Memories Album

---

Serenity Funeral Home of Southern Utah - August 25, 2024 at 12:43 PM