

Michael James Eagan

December 9, 2015

Michael James Eagan, 64, died early Wednesday morning December 9th, 2015.

He is survived by his wife of 47 years, Jali. His posterity includes his 4 children: Shane, Dustin, Amanda, and Christopher as well as 15 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

Michael was born in 1951, and raised in Salt Lake City, the son of Paul and Fay Eagan and brother to Richard Casto and Paul Eagan. Michael's greatest concern was to provide well for his family. In his early years, at times he held down two jobs all while completing his education. Despite not completing his college degree, his entrepreneurial spirit and exceptional work ethic led to him being a very successful independent sales representative for several educational companies including Walt Disney and National Geographic.

Michael was dedicated to and believed in his faith, and demonstrated it by magnifying his callings in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Above all, Michael enjoyed spending time with his family camping, fishing, hunting, and boating. In summary, the activity didn't really matter as long as it was with his family.

Services will be conducted at 11:00 am Monday, December 14, 2015 at the Washington Fields 11th Ward Building at 1867 Washington Fields Road, Washington, UT. Friends and family may call Monday at the Church from 10:00 am until 10:45 am.
