“Brenda, Michael felt you are a gift to him and that you both will deeply appreciate the eternities together! We will miss him also - always responding to our "hellos" every time we passed him and looked straight into our eyes with sincerity. Marion and I have understood the bitter with the sweet when we lost our spouses in 2012. We wish you happiness as you continue your gift of music, composition and love for your family. With all our love, Marion and Marcia Henrie
