

Nathan Montgomery Alldredge

July 16, 1977 - August 31, 2023

In loving memory of
Nathan Montgomery Alldredge

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Nathan Montgomery Alldredge, a beloved husband, son, brother, and friend, who left this world unexpectedly at the young age of 46. He was a dedicated journeyman plumber, known for his exceptional skills and unwavering commitment to hard work. Nathan will forever be remembered for his kind heart, infectious laughter, and his passion for the great outdoors.

Born on July 16, 1977, in the small town of St. George, Ut., and grew up in the neighboring town of Ivins, UT. Nathan was the son of James Isaac Alldredge SR. and Martha Elizabeth Kane. He was raised with an adventurous and loving family; he grew to be a man full of charisma and took immense pride in his work ethic. From a young age, Nathan possessed a vibrant spirit and undeniable charm of one remarkable individual. Nathan has been delighting us with his adventurous escapades from a young age. His inherent ability to find mischief may have brought its fair share of challenges, but it has also revealed a spirited and curious soul.

When Nathan was not dedicating his time to his family, he found solace in the beauty of nature. A true outdoorsman, he would spend countless hours hunting and fishing in the lush woods or near calming lakes. Whether it was the thrill of the hunt or the tranquility of casting a line, Nathan was at peace in these moments. His love for these activities was contagious, as he often shared his expeditions with family and friends, creating memories that will be treasured forever.

Beyond his professional and outdoor pursuits, Nathan was a devoted family man. The love he had for his kids was truly extraordinary. He took immense pride in the accomplishments and happiness of his cherished children.

Nathan will be fondly remembered as a man of unwavering dedication and generosity. He was a true friend, always willing to lend a helping hand or provide a shoulder to lean on. His unmistakable work ethic and commitment to excellence served as an inspiration to those who were fortunate enough to work alongside him.

Nathan leaves behind an irreplaceable void in the hearts of his loved ones. He is survived by his beloved children, Kiarah Medsker, Jacob Medsker, Mikelle Alldredge, Avery Alldredge, Jade Alldredge and Hunter Alldredge; his parents, Ike SR., and Liz Alldredge; sister Catherine Eldridge; and brothers Ike JR. Alldredge, and Wayne Alldredge.

A celebration of Nathan's life will be held on October 28th, 2023, at 117 Cottonwood Dr. Brookside, UT 84782. Friends and family are welcome to pay their respects and share cherished memories together. In honor of Nathan's love for the outdoors, it is requested that guests wear attire Covered in Camo and Orange.

Nathan Montgomery Alldredge will forever remain in our hearts as a compassionate and hardworking individual, whose immense love for his family and passion for the outdoors left an indelible mark on all who were fortunate enough to know him. May his soul find eternal peace.
