

Neil Hardy

February 4, 1934 - March 7, 2021

Washington, UT—Neil Hardy, 87, passed away on March 7, 2021 in St. George, UT. Neil was born February 4, 1934 in Las Vegas, NV to Leonard and Pansy Leavitt Hardy where McCarren Airport currently resides. He married Colleen Louise Johns in Salt Lake City, UT on December 15, 1956. Their marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake City Temple.

Dad led an eventful life. He moved from Las Vegas to LaVerkin in 1938 when he was 4 years old. He worked with his family on their fruit farm planting fruit and nut trees, harvesting the fruit, and peddling their goods to the surrounding communities in Utah and Nevada. While peddling fruit he met Midge, his childhood dog that he loved and adored, and ended up exchanging the rest of his fruit for her that day.

After graduating from Hurricane High School in 1952, vowing never to return to LaVerkin, Dad joined the Army. He served in Germany during the years of the Korean War and always spoke highly of the experience, but said that when he sailed into New York Harbor from Germany and saw the Statue of Liberty, he knew he was home.

After his discharge papers came in, Dad flew straight to Detroit to pick up his 1956 turquoise and white Ford Fairlane, right off the assembly line. He then made his way home to LaVerkin only stopping to pick up his childhood friend, Norman Gubler.

Dad had many adventures in his life including riding railway cars with Norman Gubler, driving to Alaska with Bob Mace, and working on the Alaska railroad. He also helped build the Los Angeles Temple while living with his missionary brother, Ronald (that is, until the mission president found out). Though he always kept his gypsy spirit, he eventually settled down long enough to ask Colleen to marry him.

Dad and Mom lived their young life in Salt Lake City. He went to vocational school to be a mechanic, worked at Kennecott Copper Mine, and carried mail for the US Postal Service. They had their first 5 children in Salt Lake City: Brian, Diane, Brent, Bruce, & Bryce. One day Dad came home, tired of carrying mail in the snow, and said to mom "Let's move." And so they did—moving back to LaVerkin in 1969. They added to their family with Denise and Danelle and raised their children on 5 acres, which included a fruit orchard, pecan trees, farm animals, and, of course, a swimming pool.

Dad began his entrepreneurial ventures with building a garage in LaVerkin where he worked as a mechanic and sold gas. He also built the KOA Campground in LaVerkin at the base of the hill to Zion National Park. Building the KOA is where Dad first learned how to install fiberglass pools, a skill that would serve him well in the years to come. His next and longest lasting venture took him into the fiberglass pool installation industry where he continued to work until the last week of his life.

Dad had a great love for animals. Many doggies were in our family. His little side kick in his later years was his poodle, Suzy, who went everywhere with him. Pool clients would often comment that they missed Dad & Suzy coming to their home to check on their pool installation.

And of course, Dad loved to travel. Whether riding the railroads with Norman, traveling around Europe on leave during his Army years, or taking his family on their many fun vacations, Dad was often on the move and loved to see new places. However, he never lost his love for southern Utah and always returned home.

We had the opportunity to work with our dad in every business he started. He instilled the value of hard work, honesty, and integrity to all those he met, whether personally or professionally.

One of Dad's most special traits that we will always cherish was his deep love for Mom. He showed his love in the way he talked to her, how he cared for her, and by setting the example to his children of how to treat their mother. He always had tender emotions when talking about those he loved and admired. The beautiful family that Dad and Mom created will live on forever.

Dad exemplified a life of service and caring for those less fortunate which matched up perfectly with his favorite song from Primary, "Give, Said the Little Stream" He was always one to give a ride to the hitchhiker, offer a meal to those who needed it, and help anyone without any thought of praise, return, or reward. It was not an occasional act but rather a consistent way of life. It was simply who he was at his core.

Neil is a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. His temple covenants were special to him and he honored them. He loved to read and write in his journals. We now have those precious journals to pass on to his posterity.

Neil is survived by his wife Colleen; children, Brian, Diane Empey (Ashley), Brent (Geri), Bruce (Stacy), Bryce (Sandra) and Denise Crosier (John). He has 22 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren with 4 great granddaughters on the way this year. He is also survived by his brother, Ronald Hardy.

Neil was preceded in death by his infant daughter Danelle, parents Leonard & Pansy Hardy, siblings Daisy and Tom Cooper, Leslie Hardy, Paul and Rae Hardy, and Carol and Don White.

“ My love and prayers are with the family now for God to bless and comfort you.

What a sweet and touching story of a most extraordinary man. He had a rare quality that made you feel important and special. He was my favorite uncle with an amazing family. I regret that I didn't keep in touch with them through the years. I'm especially grateful for the knowledge that families really are forever and I will get a second chance.

When I was a little girl, Uncle Neil gave me the nickname Baby Kay, which I hated of course. But somehow when he said it, I always felt his love and that made everything okay. He loved a good tease. He had a BIG heart that he shared with everyone along with a wonderful smile I'll never forget.

“ Although I never met Neil Hardy, I have felt his influence and legacy of integrity, high work ethic, and kindness. I am a client/patient of Brian. Brian is my acupuncturist. I was in dire shape prior to finally finding Brian and he has been able to help me manage my chronic illness. I feel totally confident in Brian's treatments and know I can trust him. This has come from his father, and mother, and it is heart-warming and touching to the very core. So often I see people thirsting for a father figure and a role model. It is so refreshing to see the Hardy family possess high ethics, family values, and passion for life. Neil Hardy has indeed left a legacy that I am certain will be preserved, honored, and carried on for the love within the Hardy family is very evident and family members will continue in Neil's footsteps. I express my deepest sympathy and heart felt hope for the Hardy family. God bless you all. I am praying for a sunny day for Neil's funeral. It has been raining and snowing nearly all week; miracles happen every day so here's to the sunshine in the sky for his funeral.

“ We always enjoyed the time when Neil and Suzy would stop by during the construction of our pool. It was a happy and sad moment when the pool was completed because it meant that Neil and Suzy would not be sharing their presence with us, however, we have fond memories of them whenever we enjoy our pool. With all our love,

“ We had the blessing of meeting Neil when we first moved to St. George. He installed our still beautiful pool and we became friends of the family for the next 26 years. We enjoyed having Neil show our pool to new customers as an example of his quality and care. He would leave gifts whenever he showed our pool. I tell anyone who asks "we love the Hardy's" and Neil was the best. He was a man of few words but those words will be cherished. All our love, the Murdocks.
