

Orell Wesley Hirschi

August 23, 1930 - July 6, 2025

Orell Wesley Hirschi died Sunday, July 6, 2025 at his home in Rockville, Utah with his wife and family by his side. He was 94 years old, just shy of his 95 th birthday.

He was born August 23, 1930, in Rockville, Utah to Emma Fern Stratton and Joseph Dewey Hirschi, the third of seven children: Tren (Gracia), Birrell (Marie), Emma (John Smith), Scott (Carma), Peggy (Robert Canfield), and Marllo (Carol).

He married his sweetheart, Beverly Gifford, September 15, 1962, in the St. George temple.

Together they have six children: Laurie Ann, Barbara Ruth (Wendell Andersen), Daniel Orell (Carlene), Joseph Wesley (Trinette), Perry (Wendy), and James Lamond (Juli). They have thirty-two grandchildren and an ever-growing number of great-grandchildren.

He raised his family in Las Vegas during the week and in Rockville, near Zion, on Saturdays and during the summer, maintaining the family garden and orchards until he and his wife, Beverly, retired and moved to Rockville in 1997 where they have resided since.

Orell was a faithful husband, father, and member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day-Saints all his life.

The family would like to thank all those at Integrated Home Health & Hospice and Home

Instead for their tireless assistance, especially Wendy, Tom, Rachelle, Terri, and Dr. Bigham for their love, friendship, and compassion.

Private services will be held on Friday, July 11, 2025. Well-wishers may pay their respects at an open house on Saturday, July 12 th from 2:00 to 4:00 pm at the Hirschi home located at 285 West Main Street, Rockville, Utah.
