

Peggy Ann Elk

December 31, 1958 - February 9, 2015

Peggy Ann Elk, 56, passed away February 9, 2015 at her home surrounded by her loved ones. She was born in Compton, CA on December 31, 1958, to Boyd and Lucille Eggett. She was married to M. Charles Ek, and they were blessed with two children, Arwen and Severin. They were later divorced, and she married James D. Wight, and made their home in Washington, UT.

Peggy was raised in Salt Lake City, UT, and graduated from Skyline High School, and then attended and graduated with her bachelors of arts from the University of Utah. Peggy was an accomplished artist, and enjoyed beading and painting. She was also active in politics. She was an avid outdoors woman who enjoyed hiking, four-wheeling, and camping in her beloved Southern Utah. She was employed by the US Postal Service as a window clerk and later a letter carrier for 16 years in Hurricane, UT.

Peggy is survived by: her husband, James Wight of Washington; children Arwen Greer of Nederland CO, and Serverin Ek of Seattle, WA; a grandson James Greer, also of Nederland, CO. She was preceded in death by her parents.

The family would like to thank Intermountain Hospice Care for their caring and compassion during her last days.

A family gathering was held to celebrate the life of Peggy on February 11, 2015. Her ashes will be scattered at a later date.

Family and friends are invited to share condolences online at www.CremationCenterSU.com. Arrangements are under the direction of the Cremation Center
