

Randolph Wayne Claunch

October 18, 1957 - August 22, 2015

Washington, Utah – In loving memory of Randolph Wayne Claunch, age 57, passed away on August 22, 2015 in his home. Randy was born in South Gate, CA on the 18th of October 1957, and in 1995, he moved to Utah. Randy served in the United States Navy and was a Vietnam War Veteran. Randy loved sunrises and the ocean. He enjoyed nothing more than watching family and friends playing in the water. Randy was an avid NASCAR Fan and loved to spend his time fishing and camping with the family. He loved driving his truck and worked in various professions. He celebrated and loved life and was a great partner, father, grandfather, and friend to many. Randy had a beautiful caring soul. We will all hold dear our fond memories of him. God Bless you love.

He was preceded by his parents: Dorothy and Wayne Claunch; and his brother: Donald Claunch. He is survived by: his loving partner of 38 years: Pam of Washington, UT; his children: Sommer, Kristeen, and Melanie of Washington, UT; his two sisters: Linda of Antioch, IL and Robyn of Vancouver, WA; and 7 grandchildren: Jade, Celeste, Christopher, Kyle, Daniel, Tyler and Pamela whom he adored and in turn adored him.

Please join us at Balboa Pier, New Port Beach, CA for a Celebration of Life and Sunrise Service on Sunday, Sept 13, 2015, at 5:30 AM. We will be having a simple service with some words by Pastor John Nipper and afterwards a releasing of Randy's ashes into the sea. Please wear your beach wear and be prepared to stay and have some fun. This will be a joyful celebration of his life and a recalling of happy memories.

“ If tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see, If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears, Don't cry for me; I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me...as much as I love you! I know you'll miss me too; but when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an Angel came and called my name and took me by the hand and said my place was ready in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love. But as I turned to walk away a tear fell from my eye, for all my life I'd always thought, I didn't want to die. I had so much to live for, so much left to do, it seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you. I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad, I thought of all the love we shared and all the fun we had. If I could relive yesterday, just even for awhile I'd say goodbye and kiss you, and maybe see you smile. but then I fully realized that this could never be for emptiness and memories would take the place of me. When I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow, I thought of you, and when I did my heart filled with sorrow, but when I walked through heavens gates I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me from his great golden throne, he said "this is Eternity, and all I have promised you" today your life on earth is past but here life starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last, and since each day's the same there is no longing for the past. You have been so faithful, so trusting and so true though there were times you did some things you knew you shouldn't do. You have been forgiven, and now at last your free, so wont you come and take my hand and share my life with me? So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me I'm right here in your heart.

Pam....My sister from another mother, know how much I love you, and know that I have always known that you and Randy would be apart of my life forever. I hope this poem eases some of your pain, I absolutely believe in eternal life...So Randy till we meet again my friend...I love you both,
