“ For many years it has been our honor and joy to share three precious grandsons with Becky and Warren. Although circumstances change, we still consider them close family. We have waited together in delivery rooms, laughed at birthday parties, and prayed in Priesthood ordinations as well as countless get-togethers. It's easy to see Becky's beautiful smile reflected in the faces of our "Jones boys." She's been a cheerful, generous, stable, loving influence in their lives. Although physical issues have brought personal visits to an end for now, she will never be lost. She lives on through the many heart-felt notes she has sent to us, our cherished memories and through the lives of our shared posterity. " 'Til we meet again," sweet Becky.
With our love, appreciation and gratitude,
Diane and Mans Jennings and family.

We are saddened to hear of the loss of Becky. We were greatly blessed when they moved into the Washington 2nd Ward, She always had a smile and showed love to everyone. She had a great love for Jesus Christ and showed it by the example she set. We will miss you Becky.
