

Robert Lee Adams

December 7, 1948 - February 3, 2021

Robert Lee Adams, 72, passed away on February 3, 2021 in St. George, Utah. He was born on December 7, 1948 in Bakersfield, California to Billy John and Dolly Sue Adams.

Robert is preceded in death by his son Billy John Edward Adams and both of his parents, his wife Carol Adams and Sister Billie Joan Couch. He is survived by his son, Robert Lee Adams and four grandchildren and siblings Juneita Rae Hand, Mickey J. Adams and Steven W. Adams.

Robert worked as an Operating Engineer in both Southern California and Southern Nevada on different construction jobs until he had to retire after an on the job accident which would keep him from performing in his trade and Operating Engineer for the rest of his life.

After his wife's passing, Robert moved to St. George, Utah where he lived until his passing and where his son and grandchildren still reside.

Robert will be sorely missed by all the family. May all the memories each of us share, keep him close at heart and may our Lord keep "Bobby" in eternal peace and surround our family with His peace that goes beyond our understanding.

Rest in peace Bobby.
