

Robert Bowman

December 20, 1929 - April 2, 2016

Robert “Bob” Bowman passed away on April 2, 2016. He was born on December 20, 1929, to Mary Williams Bowman and Robert Watson Bowman. He had two sisters, Mary Gene and Dorothy Adele.

Bob grew up in Bell, CA where he graduated from high school. He then attended Compton’s Junior College for two years before going on to graduate from Brigham Young University. During such time he was also called to serve a two year mission in England and Scotland for the LDS Church. Robert felt compelled to fulfill his duty by joining and serving the United States Army. He later fell in love and married Marilyn Wright. They had two sons, Robert and Timothy.

Spending time at the beach was their family’s favorite past-time. Bob worked as a teacher in Eastwood, California. He taught Math, English, and Drivers Education during his teaching career. He loved spending his spare time watching sports especially baseball and basketball. He enjoyed catching the occasional L.A. Angels game and working on his Sudoku puzzles.
