“ Grandma, I will always remember coming to visit you and getting waffles with whatever flavor syrup I wanted. You always gave the most tender kisses and the biggest hugs. I loved sitting next to you while you played the piano and listening to you sing.

Thank you for always making me feel special and letting me think I could sing just as well as you even though I was always off key. I will always remember your unconditional love and your selfless service. I love you so much, Grandma!
