“ There are several persons that impacted my life as a young married convert. It is sad to see some of them crossing the veil. Sarah and Robert Campbell are those who have touched my life, strengthened my testimony and taught through example. Although I was never privy, I've heard Sarah made a mean hush puppy. We are sending our thoughts and prayers to Bob and his family. With love, Joi & Lindsey Warburton

“ Dear Campbell family. I grew up with Sarah (Mae) and went to school with her in Blythewood, SC. Although she moved far away from Blythewood, I tried to keep up with her. She was one of my very best friends. We have talked on the phone a number of times since I moved back to SC in 2006 and occasionally communicated via FB. I am very sad to hear of her passing. May God continue to give you His strength, love, compassion, mercy and peace.

Sending love and prayers your way.

“ Dear Campbell family, we hope you know how precious your Sarah was to the Hoff family. Sarah was so very important in our family learning the Gospel and how we were expected to progress after joining the Church. Always a welcoming smile and a heartfelt hug whenever she would see us. We are so grateful for her friendship and love. Until we all meet her again, we offer our prayers and love to the Campbell family.
