

Saxon Von Daughton

March 10, 1992 - November 21, 2019

Washington, UT – Beloved son & brother, Saxon Von Daughton, 27, passed away on November 21st 2019, in Washington, UT due to clinical depression. He was born March 10th 1992, in Cedar City, UT to Lori Cragun and Philip Daughton.

Saxon was raised in Washington, UT, where he graduated high school at Pine View High. He resided in Washington and neighboring cities until he joined the Navy at the age of 19. He was active duty for 5 years. This was during an especially difficult time for him and his family, and he took great care in ensuring his mother and sisters were fully provided for. During his service in the Navy, he worked as a diesel mechanic, and he lived in various areas including Maryland, USA and Rota, Spain.

He was a man so full of life and energy, anyone who knew him was struck by his energy and sense of humor. With a big smile, and crack of a joke, he could turn your whole day around.

He enjoyed many outdoor activities such as snowboarding, hiking, camping, rafting, archery, axe throwing, etc. He also had a strong interest in science and engineering, continually looking into the latest in technology. This fueled his passion for upgrading and modifying computers, cars, etc.

He adored spending the holidays with friends and family. For instance, dressing up and participating in Halloween activities, and his giving spirit especially shined during Christmas. He had a big heart and had much love for all animals, especially dogs; as he aspired to be a dog trainer. Saxon did not belong to any particular church or religion; however, he did have Christian values. He recently took to praying for solace and guidance, and that helped to some degree. Unfortunately, he still succumbed to the overwhelming pressures of depression.

He is survived by his mother Lori Cragun, and his three sisters: Melodie, Tori, and Noelle Daughton.

He is preceded by his maternal grandmother Sandra Saunders.

The family would like to recognize that there are many people who offered comfort and compassion toward Saxon. Furthermore, they would like to acknowledge with exceptional gratitude: the Henriquez family, for including and embracing Saxon as one of their own for so many years.

Celebration of Life Service will be held on Saturday, November 30th at 1 pm at Serenity Funeral Home, 1316 S. 400 E. #A3 & A5 in St. George, Utah 84790

“ I was at landstuhl with Saxon going through similar circumstances some years ago and his company was far and away the best therapy I got there. He was the only one I really connected with there and I've often thought of him when things got too much, and I'll forever be grateful to him for that. Fair winds and following seas brother.

“ Lovable Saxon was a perfectionist. When Saxon was barely walking and would go out to my back patio, he would precisionally line up Timmy's toys in straight lines. Saxon was such a sweet, lovable kid--and gravitated towards his mom's love and attention.

I really believe Saxon's spirit is observing all the good things said about him, including but not limited to his beautiful obituary. I believe that God will consider all the circumstances surrounding Saxon. I'm so glad that Saxon can feel the love of his parents, his family, and his friends here--and the love of the Savior and, even, his ancestors in the spirit world.

You are so very loved, Saxon--now forgive yourself!

A. Hope
