

Skylar Nichole Avery

March 23, 2001 - April 13, 2024

Skylar Nichole Avery, born March 23, 2001, she unfortunately passed on April 13, 2024. Skylar was born and raised in St. George, Utah.

She is survived by her parents Kevin and Ashley, brothers, Kevin, Dane and Bradley. Her sisters; Aspen and Harmony. Her grandparents; Kimberly and Randy Andreason and Esta Atkins and La Mar Stewart. Many Aunts, Uncles and cousins.

Skylar has one of the biggest hearts around. She loved her family so much. She loved being with her sisters whenever she could. She loved her brothers. She loved watching movies and spending time with her family. She has many cousins, and they all grew up together with many memories. She loved shopping with her mom and going to eat. She loved the beach and the time she spent with her family. She was such a joy to be around, and everyone loved her truly. She will be missed beyond words. Until we meet again my love

A small memorial service will be held on Friday April 19 at 5:00pm.

“ Oh Skylar, ever since we met in middle school we've been friends. I loved being around you, whether it was in your room doing our hair and makeup and talking all day, or going on some crazy adventure you wanted to endure on, you made every occasion enjoyable. You were such a joy to be around. Your contagious laugh and beautiful smile will never be forgotten. You were so kind hearted and fought for those you loved. We have sooo many memories together but it feels like it wasn't enough. I'm so grateful to have known you and your beautiful family, it's something I'll cherish in my heart forever. You'll never be forgotten, the world is not the same without you. This isn't goodbye, we'll see each other again one day. I love you Sky.

My sister Skylar was the sweetest soul anyone will ever meet. She showed me everything I know like how to do makeup or what kinda of clothes I should like. She taught me how to play video games and when I was younger all we used to do was play on the Xbox or the Wii. Everyday she would text me asking me to get on the game and I just wish I could play with her one more time. She showed me how to be a kinder person but I could never be as kind as her, nobody could. I've looked up to skylar since the day I was born and I've done everything I could to be more like her. She was my built in bestfriend, I never had to look for her, she was always there. I wish she could have seen herself through my eyes and seen that she is important, beautiful , and the most emotionally intelligent person I knew. I wish everyone could be as soft spoken and empathetic as she was. I love you skylar you will always be my big sister and my bestfriend

“ Alright Skylar, I guess it's time we have our last talk. I didn't ever know what it felt like to be genuinely stunned, until the day I found out god took you from us. Can't even believe I'm writing this. You are beyond missed here, and even more loved. So far life's not enjoyable without you and everyone's sad. It's the hardest thing to know you're just suddenly not here anymore. I don't understand how this is possible. Not only have you impacted my life in so many ways but so has your amazing family. Becoming best friends with your sisters has changed my life in more ways than you could possibly think. Don't know why or how this happened to this beautiful family, and friends. We all miss you more than you could ever know. I love your family like my own and you all welcomed me into your lives and your home, and for that I couldn't be more grateful. There's no possible way I could repay you or them for how much you've done for me and for that I'm sorry but I will be here for them always whenever they need or want. Everyone needed more time with you. You brought a ball of the kindest most astatic energy everywhere you step foot and you had the voice of an angel. Not to mention your contagious laugh that lit up a room in seconds. Just the honor of meeting you was a blessing and I'm so grateful to have spent the last two years basically living with your family and getting to know you as more than just one of my best friends. You are the closest it gets to an older sister and I thank you for that experience. You are truly one in a million. You will forever be in my prayers and not a day will go by you aren't thought of or missed. I love you endlessly.

“ skylar my first memory ever is meeting u, @ 3 years old u had a cute little braid in your hair I can remember thinking this girl has the prettiest hair i've ever seen and we're gonna be friends forever! and we were. You were always there for me when I needed a friend. you gave me my sense of humor, you always were 100 % yourself. you taught me what it was to be an amazing friend to be there for someone even when u haven't seen eachother in years, to pick up right where u left off.

we would follow your grandpa around and pretend like we owned the complex, and if anybody told us any different you weren't scared to tell them off.

I can remember every time we would watch a movie as kids you would watch it before me and skip to the good parts so I didn't have to sit through a whole boring movie.

I can remember when we were taking turns riding in your sister's little toy flintstone car and I fell out and hurt my knee so bad you carried me all the way home and after a few bandaids we came back out and did it again and again.

last time I saw you I showed you my brand new baby and I thought this is so full circle. Thank you for being a friend forever and welcoming me into your family from day one. Thank you for being my bestfriend every time I needed it. love u forever! ❤️❤️

“ Sky was the most beautiful and incredible woman I remember the first time I came over to aspen and harmonys and met sky. Sky said liked my name and my freckles and those were the two things I never liked and she made me love them she taught me to love myself and I'm forever grateful for her and her whole family they were my second home there whole family is amazing so when I met sky it didn't surprise me one bit that she was the same she had this spark to her she was so out going and I love that about her cause when people were scared to talk she would stand up and talk for them and there was never a bad time when she was around it doesn't feel real at all that she is gone but her spirit is still alive and just like her amazing name her mother gave her we can look up at the sky and see her and remember her I loved her like she was a big sister I never had cause that's the effect she gave on everybody she was close to she took care of you like one and she would do anything for anyone. Don't get me started and her amazing smile and eyes her smile shined so bright you couldn't help but smile too and her beautiful eyes always had a spark so it was hard not to look at her same with her sisters they all have this spark there mom gave them even she has it. There whole family I am forever grateful for welcoming me into there home and for loving me I love you sky and I am going to learn every suicide boys lyrics and go to there concert for you I love you and I miss you and I love your family so much I will look out for them and I'll send mine to greet you on your journey up there I can't believe this is real I love you sky

I love my baby more than I could ever tell you. I had her when I was 17 and it was me and her against the world. My whole life was trying to make her happy. Even if she did things that upset me, I wanted her to know that she could always come to me and I will be there. She is so beautiful. She lived her baby brother Bradley. She helped me take care of him since I went back to work at he was born. We loved being together and going on trips together. My life will never be the same. I will come baby. I will be with you ❤️ please wait for me “Skylar, you had the best sense of humor. You always managed to make me laugh even during the hardest times. Your family and friends love and miss you dearly, you left to soon but I know you make the prettiest angel. I hope your safe and I hope you know we all love you more than anything. I wish I could tell you I love you one last time and hug you and feel your warmth. I'm sorry things ended this way and I wish I could've seen you grow. I love you to the moon and back Sky, you were such a party animal I hope your partying safely in heaven.

“ This girl was my best friend growing up. My sister for life. No matter how much time had passed since we last saw each other, we always picked up right where we left off. We have so many amazing memories together which I will never forget. We got into SO much trouble together and had so much fun! Skylar was beautiful, loyal and fearless as hell. She was so much fun to be around and she was always 100% herself no matter what.

We definitely ran amuck around town all day/night all summer long. But we loved to just sit around and watch movies together all day long too. We loved the first “Scary Movie” as kids. We watched that one so many times, pretty sure we could both quote the entire thing. She helped me overcome my fear of the movie “The Ring” by making me watch that one on repeat. I remember one night she came to have a sleep over at my house and we watched the movie “Signs”. We were both pretty little and it spoked us good. We tried to stay up all night watching cartoons to make the scary go away. But, that night she woke me up and made me run to the bathroom with her because she was too scared to go alone. We both crawled out of bed and headed down the hallway towards the bathroom... we looked down the stairs from the hallway and screamed bloody murder, bolted back to our bedroom and slammed the door! We definitely saw an alien!.. My mom came running out of her room and flipped on the lights. Turns out it was just a vacuum sitting at the bottom of the stairs! This is one of the oldest and most wholesome memories I have with you. I think about it often and giggle.

Skylar, I love you. I will always miss you. I will cherish all the memories we have forever. Until we meet again love <3

“ I've know you since you we're Itty bitty. I watch you grow with such perseverance & grace. You've been not only my niece but my best friend. The last 2 surgeries I've had you've been bringing me lunch or a smoothie or just cuddled up next to me talking or watching a movie. I'm going to miss those times & can only hope your in your happiest of happy places!! You were a special soul sky. Always acting older than you were. Always willing to pitch in & help where needed. You loved your family fiercely with that heart of yours. We are all going to miss you so very much. You were one of a kind Lil bit!! I will always remember the good times. And for now it's time to say goodbye. You will always be in my heart. We love you skylar :)
