“ I remember one day, I was on a drive with Shaunna, Skyler, and my great-grandpa. When Shaunna went inside to drop off my grandpa, I was complaining about my boy problems as always and asking Sky for advice. He looked at me, completely puzzled as to why I would ever ask if someone was into me. He said, "No one will ever deserve you, Brealle. Just like how I don't deserve Shaunna. She's too good for me, and I can tell you right now, if you are anything like her, which you are, there would be no doubt they don't deserve you." He proceeded to go on and on about how much he loves Shaunna in unexplainable ways.

I saw Shaunna go through hell and back, and when she met Skyler, I knew he would change her life for the better. And he did. And will always.

I love you so much, Sky, I miss you every day. You made a mark on all of us for the better. I'll see you soon, not soon enough though,

Brealle (your spicy bestie)

“ One of my favorite memories I have with Skyler was when he took me to lunch to ask for my blessing to marry Shaunna ❤️ I remember thinking how special he was to consider me since I'm just a sister, but he always had such intention with Shaunna. I'll always remember how happy and joyful Skyler was. He was always in a good mood and down to do anything or absolutely nothing. He was Shaunna's Sunshine Boy for a reason! Their life was always lived for each day and I'm so glad Shaunna got to love him, even though it wasn't long enough. Love you so big, Sky ❤️
