“ Red Mtn Market will never, I emphasize never, be the same for me without Tracy. Her personal interest in me and other customers was exceptional and genuine. I extend my sincerest sympathies to her family and coworkers. Their loss must be heavy. I wish them and the rest of us a memory of how much good a smile and personable greeting can make. Tracy has left a legacy of good will that I hope to remember and emulate. What a pleasure to have known her! Gary Lambert

“ It is with a sad heart that I extend deepest sympathies to the family. To know Tracy was to love her! I have never met someone so genuine and friendly. I got to know Tracy at the market and within a few visits she knew my name and never let me leave the store without a warm greeting. She was such a beautiful, happy person with amazing cooking secrets I never could get her to divulge. Tracy was an angel and will be sorely missed. Rest in peace my friend!

“ I just heard of Tracy's passing today. I am so sorry for her family's heartache. Tracy was always so friendly when I went in the market. I was amazed at the way she knew everyone's name . . . shouldn't have been, she just knew how to treat everyone special. I will miss her smile and laughter.

“ My dearest Tracy,
Your sparkling personality, your smile, your friendship, and most of all your hugs will be tremendously missed. You were one of a kind and it was obvious that everyone who knew you felt the same. You will be missed by so many. My sympathy goes to your loved ones, especially your "babies" as you called them. We love you, girlfriend!! See you soon!

David and Family, I am sooo saddened to hear of the loss of your sweetheart and best friend! I was just thinking today about the last time you were up here and you were soo excited to buy her a diamond necklace just because. When you brought it back here and we carefully unwrapped it so we could look at it and it was so beautiful! That sparkle in your eye for her and how much love you had for her. You will see her again! I think heavenly father just needed her back sooner than imaginable for a bigger purpose. I wanted to tell you that you are in my thoughts and prayers. David please let me know if you need anything at all!
