

Unita Jean Nicola

April 1, 1930 - March 10, 2016

Unita Jean Nicola, born on April 1, 1930, passed away on March 10, 2016. Born in Catawba, WI, to Elmer and Alice Rogers, she moved with her parents to West Alice (Milwaukee), WI. As a teenager, she attended high school in Waukesha. Unita thought it her responsibility to serve her husband and raise their family. She was a stay at home mom who was always there for her children after school or cheering the two girls on at their soccer games. Gil traveled for much of his working life. Most of the chores were always done so as not burden him with them on his return. Fiercely protective and a loving companion, Unita will be terribly missed.

“I built a tiny garden,
In a corner of my heart,
I kept it just for lovely things
And bade all else depart,
And ever was there music,
And flowers blossomed fair,
And never was it perfect
Until Nita entered there.”

Unita was preceded in death by: her brothers Harold, William (Bill) who died in the Battle of the Bulge, and her adopted brother, Casper. She is survived by: her husband Gilbert; her daughters Gail (Steve) Croson of Las Vegas, and

Susan Nicola (Roland) Wolferstetter of Shorewood, WI; and Susan's two children: Justin and Marina.

Friends are invited to meet with the family at the Santa Fe Clubhouse on Saturday, March 12, 210 N. Mall Dr., St. George, UT from 4 to 6 p.m. for a celebration of life. Please no flowers or gifts. If you feel so inclined, make a donation to your favorite charity.
