

Wenda Mae Daly Tebbs

December 13, 1926 - August 9, 2022

St. George, Utah - Wenda Mae Daly Tebbs, age 95, passed away on August 9, 2022, at her home in St. George, Utah. She was born December 13, 1926, in Panguitch, Utah to Lena Marshall Daly and Robert Norton Daly. She married Arthur Riggs Tebbs on December 16, 1943.

Wenda Mae was the oldest of five children and grew up in Panguitch. She and her husband, Art, raised their four daughters in Panguitch where they lived the majority of their lives. Wenda Mae and Art owned and operated the Red Canyon Indian Store for over forty years. They were partners in their business and rarely apart. When they purchased the store, it was a small cinder block building. Over the years they built it into a large, flourishing business where they employed many people. Wenda Mae especially loved employing family members, including her grandchildren.

Wenda Mae and Art built a winter home in St. George, Utah. They put in a swimming pool that provided years of entertainment and fun for their grandkids at family gatherings. She loved to host her ever growing family for Thanksgiving each year. After selling her business, Wenda Mae spent the last eight years of her life enjoying her beautiful St. George views and visits from her family.

She is survived by: daughters Judith Roe of Smithfield, Utah; Barbara

Guymon (James) of Parowan, Utah; and Cynthia Stout of Ennis, Montana; son-in-law, Russell Bulkley of Panguitch, Utah; 22 grandchildren, 73 great-grandchildren, 8 great-great grandchildren; brother, J. Robert Daly of Panguitch Utah.

She is preceded in death by husband, Arthur Riggs Tebbs; daughter, Marilyn Bulkley; sons-in-law, Kenneth Roe and Richard Stout; siblings, Pearl Balbi, Mark Daly and Lola Holms; grandsons, Thomas Roe and John Roe; grandson in-law Mike Robinson; granddaughter in-law Heather Guymon; great-grandson, McKay Roe.

The family would like to thank Suntree Hospice and her care-giver, Jackie MacLellan, for all they did to make Wenda Mae's life comfortable for her last years.

A graveside service will be held on Saturday, August 13, 2022, at the Panguitch Cemetery.

Family and friends are invited to share tributes online at www.SerenityStG.com. Arrangements are under the direction of Serenity Funeral Home of Southern Utah, 986-9100.

“ Sincere Sympathy to the Tebbs Family. I was your Moms visiting teacher for several years prior to her selling the business and moving to St. George. She always was so fun to visit with, and share her stories. We missed her after she moved. May our Father in Heaven Bless and Comfort you at this time. She is reunited with so many of her loved ones, whom she missed so much.

“ I am so grateful to have known your family and especially Wenda Mae. I had the privilege of working at the Red Canyon Indian store through teenage and college years and they were always gentle good and kind to me. Cindi , your friendship I cherish and hope that you are comforted in all of the good memories you've had with your family— especially your Mom. Condolences now, love, Angeli
