“ I have known Ian since I was about 3 years old. I have always been amazed by his authenticity. He gave others permission to truly be themselves, and lived life fully. Ian had a way of making me laugh, and I will always remember his sweaters and cardigans. I am so grateful for his influence and memories in my life, and grateful for his steadiness and peace he brought. Ian will be missed, and I hope he feels the love that so many on earth have for him❤️

“ Ian was an amazing person who will be missed. He lifted and inspired those around him to be better. I loved visiting with him in my office at Snow Canyon. Ian always looked for - and saw the good in everyone. My thoughts and prayers are with his family at this time of great loss. Ian will always have a special place in my heart. The world is a better place because of him.

“ I had the joy of attending multiple formal dances with Ian. I loved talking with him. I told him once that I felt like I could discuss anything with him; our conversations were like that first breath of air after being underwater for so long. I've missed him ever since I moved away, and it's saddening that I won't be able to talk with him again. He was an incredible person.

“ The only thing I can remember about Ian was a big smile and a warm presence. I can't believe that that light no is no longer here physically, but it's forever carried in our hearts.

“ Ian was the funniest and nicest guy. I remember once in seminary our teacher asked us to write a note to someone we appreciated and he wrote one to me thanking me for giving him rides and being friendly. He was always a good friend to everyone. My heart goes out to your family at this time.

“ Ian was a student in my English classes. He could write anything: poetry, narratives, stories, persuasive/arguments. He often shared his writing with me and he always had something significant to say. He was an avid reader and we had some deep discussions about the literature we both had read. I remember he was a joy to have in class. He was so positive and funny. He improved the climate of a class just by being there and he made me laugh every class period he was in. He is one young man of whom I have very fond memories.

I offer my condolences to his family and friends. He improved our world and I am thankful to have been a part of his.

“ I am so saddened to hear of Ian's loss. He was an amazing young man who touched my life deeply when he was in my classes at Snow Canyon HS. He was an incredible writer, so creative, and always gave myself and his fellow classmates a new perspective on whatever we were studying. Ian marched to his own drum and made the world a better place. I am honored that I got to move in his orbit for a time.

“ Ian was a breath of fresh air every time he walked into my classroom. His genuine kindness and empathy for others was contagious. We had so many in depth discussions on the bus to a debate tournament. He always gave his all to debate. I'll never forget the hysterical DJ individual event with Naythan Bell. I call still close my eyes and see the soulful Ian and the quirky Naythan . I watched each and every performance all the way to 1st place. It will always bring a smile and a tear. May they both rest in peace. It was an absolute pleasure to be their debate teacher. Love always, Delsy

“ Ian was my best friend in high school. He was one of the few people I actually saw outside of school. He helped me study when I was taking some college classes. I remember going bowling with him a few times a week our senior year. We never did get good at bowling and never joined a bowling league like we said we would. We had many deep conversations on life and the meaning of life. He always talked about his family and how great they were. It's hard to think that he won't be around anymore. I'll never forget him. I'll miss you big guy.

“Ian, as we knew him, was one of the sweetest, most respectful and polite young men I've know. My husband and I had the privilege of being his youth leaders at church. These are pictures from a youth conference in 2010. He sent me the sweetest message thanking us for taking him and praising our family. He was a light and a joy to know. I look forward to seeing you again one day. I send my sincerest condolences to his family.

“ This is heartbreaking. This man was my buddy in middle school and high school. He was selfless and kind to everyone. He was a sweetheart with an adorable laugh! He made math class and English enjoyable. 😭 I was actually just thinking of him the other day, he always made me laugh in Spanish class because we would try to teach each other and we were so very bad at it. He was a character and WILL be missed.
